

BRAMERTON PARISH COUNCIL

EQUALITY POLICY

BACKGROUND

1. The purpose of this policy is to help the Council meet its duty under the Equality Act 2010 which applies to all organisations that provide a service to the public or to a section of the public.

THE COUNCIL'S COMMITMENT

2. Bramerton Parish Council aims to ensure that our services meet the varied needs and expectations of the local people and that everyone has equal access to all services regardless of age, gender, sex and sexual orientation, disability, marital status, ethnicity, religious belief or any other individual characteristics.
3. The Council will do its best to:
 - a. eliminate bullying, harassment and victimisation;
 - b. advance equality of opportunity between people who share a characteristic and those who do not;
 - c. foster good relations between people who share a characteristic and those who do not.
4. In order to promote equality of access to services the Council will aim to ensure the following:
 - a. the services provided are in response to the needs of the whole community;
 - b. the Council will monitor views and take into account parishioners' views;
 - c. the information on services is widely available to ensure maximum awareness of provisions;
 - d. that in advertising and publicity the Council will be presented as an authority committed to promoting equality of access to employment and services
 - e. that staff will be consulted and their contribution valued in the information and promotion of equality of access to Council services that staff will be trained and supported in carrying out their duties in line with implementing equal opportunities policies.

MONITORING

5. The Parish Clerk will establish appropriate systems to monitor the service delivery on the basis of age, gender, sex and sexual orientation, disability, marital status, ethnicity, religious belief or any other individual characteristics to ensure that the Council acts fairly and without discrimination.

EMPLOYMENT

6. It is the policy of the Council to afford equal treatment to all its employees and prospective employees. The aim of this policy is to ensure that no job applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, sex or sexual orientation, marital status, physical or other handicap.

7. Whilst the main responsibility for providing equality of opportunity rests with the Council, employees also have responsibilities. The elimination of discriminatory practices depends upon the co-operation of all employees. In particular employees should:
 - a. co-operate with measures introduced to make sure there is equality of opportunity and no discrimination;
 - b. ensure that they do not discriminate against others;
 - c. draw to the Council's attention any discriminatory acts or practices;
 - d. not victimise individuals on the grounds that they have made a complaint or provided information about discrimination;
 - e. not harass, abuse, bully or intimidate others.

8. If in the course of their employment an employee fails to meet the requirements in 7 it will be considered a disciplinary matter and the appropriate action taken.
